

Comparison between listening to music and storytelling.

Storytelling	Music Listening
Read a story to children	Play a piece of music to children
Revisit the story – can children anticipate what happens in the story?	Revisit the music – can children anticipate what happens in the music?
Discuss the story and what it is about, the characters, what happens.	Discuss the music and what it is involved fast/slow, loud/quiet, instruments, what happens.
Do children like to use characters from the story, or elements of the story within their role play?	Do children like to use elements of the music within their music making?