

Movement

Ideas and questions to explore in your setting

- Can you create a space which allows for expressive movement to music? If space is a challenge and you are not able to provide a space for movement continuously then can a space be created at certain times during the day or week?

- Experiment with different styles of music and observe how the children physically respond.

- Offer children movement ideas – some children may prefer being offered ideas