Story Songs

Use your favourite song to start off your own story song.

1. Working on your own or in groups, replace the missing words with your own. Have a go with this famous Beatles song!

When I find myself in times of _____ comes to me.

Speaking words of _____

Let it be, let it be.

2. Take out even more words to make it more challenging or fun. Try and stay with your theme and write more verses. Sing it out loud and have fun!

3. Lastly, try using different songs of your choice and see what you can come up with.
