

WE ARE HERE

This micro exhibition is a multidimensional response to many current issues:

- To the issue of commissioners in both the public and the private sector under commissioning artists such as us, by saying 'we do not know any Black Creatives/Photographers'

WE ARE HERE

- To the issue of the invisibility of UK Black Female Photographers

WE ARE HERE

- To the issue of privilege and racism within the industry

WE ARE HERE

- Simply to continue to amplify the voices and talent of Black Female Creatives to those unaware of us
